Section 12: Additional information

Please continue with a separate sheet if required and include account number

Section 13: Customer Declarations and Consents

When you obtained your current mortgage with us you signed a declaration and/or consent document. The following declaration is supplemental to that document and if there is any discrepancy between the two, this declaration overrides that discrepancy.

Please read this document section carefully before going ahead with your application. If there is anything you do not understand, you may wish to discuss this with a mortgage intermediary or financial advisor before signing below.

1. OUR DETAILS

In this document “we”, “us” and “our” means Kensington Mortgage Company Limited (the mortgage lender) and our successors and anyone who takes over our legal rights and/or responsibilities under our agreement with you. We are authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority and our registered office is Ascot House, Maidenhead Office Park, Maidenhead SL6 3QQ.

2. CONTACTING EACH OTHER

2.1 How to give instructions and get information

You must give us written instructions unless we say you can give us instructions by phone. You can ask for information about your mortgage by calling or writing to us. If you call us, you must go through our security procedures before we give you confidential information or follow your instructions. If you appoint someone to act for you, you will need to provide written authority before we can provide information to them or follow their instructions and they will also have to go through our security procedures. We may monitor and record calls so we can check instructions you give us, train our staff and for quality monitoring purposes.

2.2 You can contact us by writing to us, by email or by calling us

We may contact you by writing to you, by email, by calling you, by SMS or by any other reasonable method of communication. We will contact you using the latest contact details you have given us. You must tell us if they change.

3. IF TWO OR MORE OF YOU ARE APPLYING

(If more than two of you are applying, when we say “both” of you, we mean all of you).

Each of you will make the declarations and give the consents below. You are jointly and severally liable for the mortgage which means you are each responsible for following your obligations in this document and in the mortgage conditions and special conditions we send you and if one of you breaks an obligation we can take action against one or both of you.

Any of you can give us instructions to do with our agreement with you independently of the other borrower(s) and we do not need to check with the other borrower(s) before acting on those instructions but we may choose to do so.

Where reasonable, we may give information about your mortgage to one of you, rather than both. Where you share the same address we may send only one copy of any required communication addressed to both of you.

4. APPLYING FOR YOUR Additional Lending OR TO PORT YOUR MORTGAGE (WITH OR WITHOUT ADDITIONAL LENDING)

4.1 We need complete information

When completing your application, you will be providing information to help us decide about whether to agree your request for a Additional Lending or to port your mortgage (with or without Additional Lending). You must give us true, complete, accurate and up-to-date information with your application and whenever you contact us afterwards. This means you must mention everything you think may be relevant. For example, in your application you must tell us about all other money you owe, and whether you have been cautioned, convicted or charged with any crime (other than minor driving offences or relating to spent convictions). If you have to give us information about someone else, you must have their permission first. We will rely on the information you give us to decide whether to agree to Additional Lending or porting your mortgage. Where we give the information to others, they will also rely on it for their purposes. If any of the Further Information you give us changes you must tell us. This may affect our decision about your Additional Lending or porting (with or without Additional Lending) application.

4.2 Further Information

We (or others for us) may gather information we think is reasonably needed to decide whether to agree Additional Lending or to port your mortgage (with or without Additional Lending). As part of this, we can seek information and references about you from, for example, your past and current employers, solicitors, debt counsellors, lenders, landlords, accountants, banks, tax offices and insurers. We may also refresh this information in the future whilst you have a mortgage with us, by checking your details with credit reference agencies and fraud prevention agencies and by asking you for details of your income and expenditure. This may be necessary where we need up-to-date information to make a further lending decision, for example where we need to decide whether to make Additional Lending to you, or where we are checking to see whether the mortgage remains affordable for you. Any enquiries made to credit reference agencies during the life of your mortgage will not be visible to others when they view your credit record and will not affect your credit rating. We may record telephone calls between you and us which will be monitored for security, quality or training purposes.

4.3 Fees

We will tell you about any fees and expenses you have to pay in relation to your application in your offer letter and/or tariff of fees and charges. A fee may be payable upfront for your application. This is non-refundable. Any early repayment charges applicable will be referred to in the Offer. There may be additional fees that you have to pay to your mortgage intermediary. These fee arrangements are between you and your intermediary.

4.4 Declined application

We may decline your application or withdraw or revise an offer at any time before the change is made. Where we do so on the basis of an automated decision, we will let you know, and you have the right to ask us to review that decision.

5. VALUATIONS

5.1 Property Valuation

We may arrange a property valuation to help us in considering your application. This may be an automated valuation or involve a physical inspection. We may charge you a fee for this valuation. This fee is non-refundable even if the requested Additional Lending or porting (with or without Additional Lending) does not proceed or your application is declined.

Where we do arrange a valuation, this valuation is not a detailed structural report and is for our benefit, not yours, and so you should not rely on it. The valuer is not an agent of ours and we are not responsible for any representations or opinions they express. If we decide to proceed with the Additional Lending or porting (with or without Additional Lending), this doesn't mean we are guaranteeing the value or condition of your property in any way. Please arrange your own survey if you wish to rely on it as to the value or condition of your property.

5.2 Revaluation

At any time in the future before you redeem your mortgage, we can have your property re-valued. If we ask you must pay us the reasonable cost of each revaluation if we had it carried out because:

- you've borrowed money from someone else, secured by a mortgage on your property;
- you've asked to borrow more money from us;
- we reasonably needed the revaluation before deciding to release more money to you;
- you are intending to make a change to the property which may affect the value of the property provided as security for the mortgage (for example home improvements, a part sale of land or grant of a lease or granting someone else a right that affects your property known as an “easement”); or
- it was otherwise reasonable in the circumstances due to a need for us to be able to re-assess the value or condition of our security.

6. MAKING YOUR REPAYMENTS

You must make all your mortgage repayments on time. You may consider taking out your own payment protection insurance or making other arrangements to make sure you can keep up your repayments if you have an accident, fall ill or become unemployed. You may also wish to consider taking out appropriate life insurance to repay the mortgage in the event of your death. If you do choose to make such arrangements, you may wish to speak to an authorised insurance adviser or a consumer advice service about your insurance needs.

7. WE MAY TRANSFER OUR RELATIONSHIP WITH YOU

We can transfer any (or all) of our rights and responsibilities under our agreement with you to someone else at any time. For example, we may sell or assign your loan (and any mortgage or other security we have for your repayments) to another business. We, or others we sell or assign your mortgage to, may raise finance on your mortgage. If we transfer our responsibilities under our agreement with you, we will make sure the person we transfer them to takes on the same responsibilities towards you. Your rights and responsibilities will be the same as under our agreement with you.

8. USING INFORMATION ABOUT YOU

For the purposes of the General Data Protection Regulation 2016 and the Data Protection Act 2018 (together "the Data Protection Legislation"), we are the data controller of the information we collect and use about you. We will adhere to all legislation concerning Data Protection and uphold your rights as to the control and processing of your data. Please read the Fair Processing Notice ("FPN"), available on our website, for further details on how we collect and use your data.

YOUR CONSENT

By signing below you confirm and declare that:

- a) you agree to the above terms both now and for the duration of your mortgage agreement with us;
- b) you have received and read any illustration provided to you;
- c) you have read and understood the Fair Processing Notice relating to our collection, use and processing of your data, and your rights relating to that processing;
- d) you have given true, complete, and up-to-date information in your application, including mentioning everything you think may be relevant and to the extent we and/or third parties do not have a legitimate interest in processing your personal data, you give your explicit consent to;
- e) you agree to the processing of your personal data, including carrying out searches with the parties illustrated in the Fair Processing Notice, in particular with credit reference agencies and fraud prevention agencies;
- f) you agree to our transfer of your personal data outside of the EEA where necessary for the administration of our agreement with you or for the purposes of running our business; and
- g) you agree to our collection and use of your special category data, and criminal records and offences data, for the purposes set out in the Fair Processing Notice.

All applicants must sign below

By signing and dating this application, I confirm that I have read the information contained in the application and make/give the declarations/consents herein. If there is anything that I do not understand or do not agree with, I will contact you without unreasonable delay to discuss this further before signing this document. Kensington can rely upon the truth and accuracy of the information contained within my application, the documentation provided in support of my application and the declarations and consents above. Kensington can use my information for all the purposes referred to within the declarations and consents above.

I understand that my home may be repossessed if I do not keep up repayments on my mortgage.
