1. of the nature of the proposed mortgage transaction and the risks involved for the Guarantor;
2. that the purpose of the guarantee is that the Guarantor is principal obligor and that he/she indemnifies and keeps indemnified the Lender in full and on demand from and against all and any losses, costs, claims and Expenses incurred by the Lender arising out of, or in connection with, the Guaranteed Obligations; and
3. in addition to the general advice given under 1 and 2:
 - (a) of the amount of the Loan;
 - (b) that all moneys due to you from the Borrower under or in connection with the Loan and the legal charge will be covered by the guarantee;

 - (d) that if the Guarantor is giving the guarantee on the assumption that other guarantors will be giving, and be bound by, the guarantee the Guarantor will still be liable for the full debt due from the Borrower even if the other guarantors do not enter into the guarantee or, if they do, they are not bound or are released by you;
 - (e) that if there are other guarantors, the Guarantor will be jointly and severally liable with those other guarantors and that you have an absolute discretion in deciding which of these you pursue, when and for what amounts;
 - (f) that you do not have to exhaust your remedies against the Borrower or any other guarantors before claiming against the Guarantor under the guarantee and that whilst money is outstanding to you from the Borrower, the Guarantor cannot take or enforce any security from or against the Borrower;
 - (g) that the guarantee will bind the Guarantor's estate.

The Guarantor has confirmed to me that he has no further queries in respect of the advice given.

4. Any references to the 'borrower' mean all of the borrowers if there is more than one of them.
5. All terms in bold shall have the meaning given to them in the Kensington Mortgage Conditions 2020.

7. Unless the offer says otherwise, the requirements of the Handbook and these instructions must be satisfied before we release any loan. If any of the requirements cannot be satisfied, you should report this to us so that we can consider whether to lend. If you need to notify us of or take our instructions on any matter in order to comply with our instructions, please ensure you do so before submitting your certificate of title and well in advance of the anticipated date of completion.

8. You should explain to each borrower (and any other person signing a document, such as a guarantor) the conditions of the mortgage and their responsibilities and liabilities. In particular please ensure that they are informed that:

 - e. that the declarations which they have made in the mortgage application are incorporated in the mortgage, and must not in any way be misleading or false;
 - f. that the valuation report has been prepared by the valuer (who is not the Lender's agent) for the Lender's use for mortgage purposes only and that neither the Lender nor the valuer are under any liability for negligence or on any basis whatsoever to the borrower in respect of the value or the state or condition of the property; and
